The sculptured bodywork has been created out of beautiful carbon fibre which offers both strength and weightsaving properties. The Vanquish Zagato Coupe is not only one of the most beautiful modern GT cars, it is also the last of an era to be driven by Aston Martin's naturally asprirated V12. It is a car that sounds as good as it looks. The Vanquish Zagato also has a following because it is extremely usable. With comfortable seats, a great 1000w B&O sound system and suspension that is not outrageously stiff, it is a wonderful car to cover miles in.
