Description

This 2023 Aston Martin DBX V8 707 boasts a full service history, ensuring its provenance is as impressive as its performance. This four wheel drive SUV is powered by a robust 4.0 litre petrol engine, meeting Euro 6 emission standards. It comes equipped with an electric deployable tow bar, capable of towing up to 2700 kg, and features smoked tail lights for a distinctive look. Inside, you'll find both front and rear seats are heated and ventilated, complemented by an interior jewellery pack in satin silver and a remote park heat function.

The DBX V8 707 offers exceptional performance, accelerating from 0 to 60 mph in a remarkable 3.1 seconds, a figure that places it ahead of many comparable vehicles. This impressive acceleration is a testament to the engineering prowess of this Aston Martin. For your peace of mind, the vehicle includes a 12 month warranty and a 12 month MOT will be provided upon purchase, further underscoring its excellent condition.
